

This economical plan can help keep your business up and running should you become disabled by paying your share of many of your business' overhead expenses. Choose a monthly benefit of $2,500, $5,000 or $10,000, or more — up to $15,000 per month — then complete the application included on the website today.

Summary of plan benefits

Business Overhead insurance helps pay your company's covered overhead expenses should you become totally disabled and unable to work at your regular occupation. Benefits will continue until you receive the equivalent of up to 24 monthly benefit payments. Eligible expenses include:

- Office rent
- Employees' salaries and insurance premiums
- Utility bills, including electric, heat, water, gas and telephone
- Premiums for business and malpractice insurance
- Accountant's fees
- The monthly average of taxes and mortgage interest payments on the business premises you own or lease and use in your profession
- Other fixed overhead expenses that are normal and customary in operating your business

Apply for up to $15,000 per month

Members under age 60 who work full time (at least 30 hours per week) may apply. Members under age 50 may apply for up to $15,000 per month (in $100 increments); members age 50 to 59 may apply for up to $10,000 per month (in $100 increments). All applications are subject to company acceptance. If a medical exam is required, it will be conducted at your convenience and at no cost to you. Coverage will begin on the date your application is approved. You must be actively at work on the date your insurance is to take effect. If you are not, insurance will take effect on the day you resume such work.

"Own occupation" definition of disability

You are considered to be totally disabled when you cannot perform the substantial and material duties of your regular occupation due to injury or sickness and are under the care or supervision of a licensed physician. To be covered, the sickness must begin or accident occur while your coverage is in force.

It's quick and easy to apply today

1. Select a monthly benefit amount of up to $15,000. See other side for your economical premiums based on your age.
2. Choose a 15- or 30-day waiting period before benefit payments begin.*
3. Complete the application included on the website. Upon acceptance, a premium notice will be sent to you with your policy.

Renewable to age 70

Coverage is renewable to age 70 as long as you pay your premium when due and you remain actively engaged full time in the duties of your occupation.

Premiums are waived during disability

If you become totally disabled prior to age 60 and receive monthly benefits for six continuous months, you won't have to continue paying premiums for this plan for as long as you are receiving benefits.

Your survivor may receive benefits

If you die while totally disabled and have been receiving benefits for 12 continuous months, your beneficiary will receive up to three months of additional benefit payments.

*Benefits are payable retroactive to the first day of your total disability, once you have been totally disabled for your selected waiting period.
